

Laundry Aide, Support Services

Salary: $18,652 to $22,288 per year ($26.57 to $31.75 per hour)

Status: Part-Time (0.8 FTE), Indeterminate

Competition #: 143-22

Closing Date: March 20, 2023

Responsible for the provision of clean linens of good quality to end users, including staff and patients, on a scheduled and as needed basis, following standard procedures, universal precautions, and pre-determined quotas. The incumbent is part of a two-member team that is responsible for ensuring that soiled linen is handled in a manner consistent with universal precautions, department procedures and manufacture recommendations for handling.

The Laundry team handles linens at the hospital, the Woodland Manor, and the Hay River Medical Clinic. The incumbent also cleans personal clothing for Extended Care Patients in the hospital. Failure to perform these duties would result in delays that will directly effect care delivered to patients and in the case of personal laundry, may affect patient's well-being.

Qualifications:

- Must have a good understanding of all written & oral instructions in English in order to read & understand Material Safety Data Sheets, labels on garments, universal precautions, infection prevention & control, and ability to maintain monthly stats for the department;
- Knowledge of and ability to safely handle biohazardous materials;
- Must have good organization & time management skills;
- Flexible, Punctual, On-time, Good Attendance, and Reliable;
- Must have the ability to work under minimal supervision, as well as with the larger team;
- Must be familiar with & able to safely use cleaning products/chemicals, supplies, tools and machinery;
- Previous experience with commercial housekeeping or laundry preferred;
- Must be able to physically able to meet the demands of the job which include (but are not limited to): heavy lifting of wet laundry, bending, twisting, crouching, pushing, pulling, standing, sitting, as well as working in hot conditions or around unpleasant smells & loud noises;
- Safety must remain a top priority.

This level of skills would normally be acquired through the completion of Grade 10 or higher, with experience in a commercial laundry and/or housekeeping setting. A Certificate from the Canadian Laundry and Linen Association would be a definite asset, but not mandatory. Must be able to acquire within a reasonable timeframe and remain current with the following mandatory certifications:

- Non-Violent Crisis Intervention
- Back Injury Prevention Training
