Memo: Hay River Health and Social Services Authority (HRHSSA) Closure

This memo is to notify residents of Hay River that due to the current evacuation order and wildfire threat in our area, the Hay River Regional Health Centre is CLOSED.

Residents who have evacuated are encouraged to stay in place and not return to the community as there are no amenities or health services available.

For general health inquiries, please dial 811. This is a free and confidential telephone service available 24 hours a day. You will be able to speak with a nurse who can evaluate your current health situation and give advice based on your current condition.

For emergencies dial 911. Please be aware local response capacity may be limited due to the nature of this emergency.

HRHSSA is committed to keeping clients and residents informed as the situation unfolds.

An evacuation order remains in place for the entire community of Hay River and K'at'l'odeeche First Nation. Please visit The Town of Hay River Facebook page or website for the most recent updates.
